A call for the formation of a Chicago Library Club was issued December 12, 1892, signed by representatives of the Newberry Library, the Chicago Public Library, the Chicago Historical Society and the Chicago Law Institute.

Pursuant to this call, eighteen persons of Chicago and vicinity assembled at the Newberry Library, December 17, 1891, organized and adopted the following Constitution:

CONSTITUTION.

1. NAME.

This organization shall be called "THE CHICAGO LIBRARY CLUB."

2. OBJECT.

Its object shall be, by consultation and co-operation, to increase the usefulness and promote the interests of the Libraries of Chicago and vicinity.

3. MEMBERS.

Any person interested in Library work and unanimously recommended for membership by the Executive Committee may be elected at any meeting, and all proposals for membership shall be referred to this Committee.

4. OFFICERS.

This Club shall annually elect a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer. These officers shall constitute the Executive Committee. This committee shall appoint such special and standing committees as may be needed and shall have power to act for the Club on all matters on which the committee is unanimously agreed. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Club and at all meetings of the Executive Committee. In his absence a Vice-President shall take his place.

The Secretary shall keep a record of all meetings; shall give due notice of any election, appointment, meeting or other business requiring the personal attention of any member and shall have

The Treasurer shall keep a full and accurate record of all receipts and disbursements with date, purpose and amount; shall pay no money without order of the Executive Committee and shall make an annual report.

5. MEETINGS.

(Amended November 3, 1892.)

The regular meeting of the Club shall be held during the first week of the months of October, November, December, January, February and March, at such time and place as may be selected by the Executive Committee.

Special meetings of the Club may be called by the President, provided due notice be given.

Meetings of the Executive Committee shall be called on request of three of its members.

6. DUES AND DEBTS.

Annual dues shall be one dollar. No debt or obligation of any kind shall be contracted by the Club or any committee, officer or member thereof on its behalf.

7. AMENDMENTS.

This Constitution may be amended by a three-fourths vote at a regular meeting of the Club, provided that each member shall have been notified of the proposed amendment at least two weeks before.

8. ORGAN.

The Library Journal shall be the official organ of the Club, and records of all meetings shall be promptly transmitted to it by the Secretary.
